01

New Door Material Technology

Say goodbye to traditional timbers, melamines, and lacquers! Kitchen door construction and finishes have come a long way. Modern technologies have introduced a plethora of stunning colours and finishes suitable for all budgets. Imagine having premium honed lacquered doors, like those from European manufacturers such as Nobilia in Germany, right in your kitchen.

- Anti-fingerprint Coating: Imagine trendy, matte, dark colours without the hassle of fingerprints—a dream come true for families with young children. Kütchen offers this innovative technology, ensuring your kitchen stays pristine.
- Durability and Comfort: These new surfaces are not only robust and scratch-resistant but also soft and pleasant to the touch. You can enjoy a kitchen that's both functional and aesthetically pleasing.

Space-saving In-cabinet Accessories

“Maximise your kitchen storage like never before with Kütchen’s innovative in-cabinet accessories.

- Full-extension Soft-close Drawers: No more struggling to reach the back of your cabinets. Kütchen’s full-extension soft-close drawers allow you to utilise every inch of space effortlessly.
- Le-Mans Corner Pull-outs: Say goodbye to blind corners. With Kütchen’s Le-Mans Corner pull-outs, you can easily access big trays that swing out to meet you, offering a whopping load capacity.
- Individual Pull-out Pantries: Clear visibility and easy access to everything you store. These pull-out pantries provide far more usable space than plain shelf pantries.
- Under-sink Drawers: Avoid the clutter of cleaning products. Kütchen’s under-sink drawers offer organised and accessible storage solutions.
- Complete Recycling Systems: Multiple bins, food scraps bucket, bag storage, dustpan and brush—everything you need, right at your fingertips.

High Extraction Rate

Packed into a small space below the cooktop, these systems suck all smells and steam down through a vent in the middle. No more lingering cooking odors!

Flexible Positioning

Place your cooktop anywhere in the kitchen without worrying about an overhead rangehood. This frees up valuable storage space and eliminates the head-hitting hazard for tall individuals.

Recirculating or Ducted Systems

Whether you prefer recirculating through carbon filters or ducting to an external wall, Kütchen has the solution to fit your kitchen's design and layout.
